9. OLD BUSINESS

1. Discussion of FY26 Youth Commission Work Plan

Henig provided an update on the Commission's work plan and turned it over to Chair Nguyen to discuss the legislative issue and OpportuniTEEN Fair. Nguyen asked each member of the legislative committee--Sanchez, Ortega, Bhandal, and Nguyen--to provide a report on the area they were assigned. Sanchez cited the example of protective bike barriers installed recently at Cupertino's Lawson Middle School. Ortega discussed various scientific studies; Bhandal discussed costs; and Nguyen spoke about the proposed pilot program.

For the OpportuniTEEN Fair, the Vendor Committee reviewed the various vendors who had committed to participating in the event. To date, there are 26 vendors with several "Maybes." McPhillips recommended the Committee also reach out to the Downtown Gilroy Business Association group and Garlic Festival Association as possible vendors who may want to table.

The next step is for the marketing committee to meet with Staff liaison Henig and eventually, the logistics committee as well.

10. STAFF/COMMISSION COMMENTS

1. 10.1 – Youth Advisory Council (YAC) Attack Conference, Saturday March 7 2026 in Los Altos.

Henig reminded the Commission to register for the YAC Attack. Sanchez added herself. Also, the Commission will present on how to develop an intergenerational dance at the conference. Speakers will be Bermudez, Nguyen, and Bhandal.

2. Thank you LeeAnn McPhillips

On behalf of the Commission, Henig thanked McPhillips for her years of service supporting the Youth Commission.

11. ADJOURNMENT

Chair Nguyen adjourned the meeting at 6:33 p.m.
